

Draft program

Title: Teaching information ethics in Africa – current status, opportunities and challenges

Date: 6 & 7 September 2010

Place: University of Botswana

Part one : Monday September 6 & Tuesday morning September 7

- Official opening: VIP (to be confirmed)
- Setting the scene: Prof Dr Rafael Capurro on Global Intercultural Information Ethics
- The need for Information Ethics in Africa
  - Government perspective: Dr Bandile Hadebe
  - Private Sector perspective: SAP representative
  - NGO perspective: To be announced
  - UNESCO perspective: Jaco Du Toit
- Status reports from different African countries on the teaching of Information Ethics
  - South Africa: Dennis Ocholla
  - Namibia: Kingo Mchombu
  - Botswana: Stephen Mutula
  - Uganda: Kigongo Bukenya
  - Nigeria: Iyabo Mabawonku
  - Kenya: Daniel Rotich or Japheth Otike
  - Ghana: Anaba Alemna
  - Zambia: To be announced
  - Zimbabwe: To be announced
  - Tanzania: To be announced
  - Central African Republic: To be announced (Ken Himma?)
- Summary of status reports and discussion – introduced and facilitated by Kimberly Douglass
- Case study: Ethical Constraints to Establishing Global Electronic Classrooms (York Bradshaw)
- Development of an Information Ethics toolkit for African universities
- Can you buy an African Dream (Felix Weill and Rafael Capurro)
- The road ahead

Part Two (Tuesday afternoon)

- Children /Youth and Information Ethics in Africa
  - Key note – Jesse Mugambi
  - Panel discussion – Charles Nadine; Meena Khorana; Andrew Limo; Sarah Kibugi
  - Break out session